AIRPORT IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

WHEREAS, the Commission is charged with developing infrastructure to serve rural Alaskan communities, particularly distressed communities; and

WHEREAS, many rural communities do not have resources necessary to participate in modern community infrastructure construction; and

WHEREAS, rural communities find it difficult to meet health and safety needs and to attract business and industry without adequate public infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, the Commission is committed to fund demonstration projects if such projects have significant potential to contribute to economic development; and

WHEREAS, the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) has identified 7 projects for funding in FY2001 with a total estimated cost of $8,000,000, and requiring a local match of about $301,000; and

WHEREAS, approximately $83,702 is currently available from funds previously allocated by the Commission for this purpose;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Commission allocates up to $217,298 (combined with $83,702 currently available, equals $301,000 needed to match FAA funds) to provide match for FAA funds expected to be available for planning, design and construction of airport improvement projects.
