A. Narrative of Services:

Provide a brief narrative of the activities your organization has conducted to meet the goals and objectives of the grant.

The students were provided training in the construction trades that gave them experience in planning and designing a construction project. The participant received, at least one semester course of NCCER and were trained in employability skills as well as being introduced to career pathways. All of the participants received class work regarding drugs and alcohol. All of the participants were introduced to career pathways during the year from people associated with the construction trades, that were working on the Island, who spoke to the class.

Seven of the participants have now as of this date 08/15/2011 received their NCCR Certificate.
