Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Grant/Award, this Authorization:

This new project authorization will allocate funds to the University of Alaska to provide the overall coordination of the various allied health initiatives and project development for the second year of activities under the same award. The activities under this project authorization will coordinate all allied health initiatives under the scope of this award, replicate lessons learned, reduce duplication and promote a cohesive effort on behalf of rural Alaskans.

The University of Alaska will initiate and develop allied health initiatives through the coordination and facilitation of a coordinator and part-time project assistant. Staff will facilitate the overall project activities including meetings of work groups, forums, troubleshooting, and reporting. The coordinator and assistant will be monitoring, controlling and ensuring success of the CHAP, Medical Office/HCR, Dental Assistant, Medical Lab tech, Health Sciences and Physical Therapy Assistant programs.
